

CONTRACTORS: ARTISAN & TRADE

BODILY INJURY

A painting contractor was working on a hot day painting the third floor bedroom of an apartment in a very densely populated urban area. He set the paint can on the sill of the open window. He accidentally hit the can which fell from the window and hit a pedestrian. The pedestrian incurred $5,000 of medical bills and also missed work for five days incurring $750 for lost wages.

PROPERTY DAMAGE

A carpentry contractor was installing a window on the second floor of an office building. The window slipped out of the opening and fell on a car below. It caused $2,400 of damage to the car.
